Instructor: Sheriff Mike Lewis

Sheriff Lewis recently retired as a Sergeant with the Maryland State Police, Pro-Active Criminal Enforcement Team (PACE) after twenty-two years of loyal and dedicated service. In addition to his duties as the agency's leading Criminal Interdiction Expert, Sheriff Lewis remains a CERTIFIED INSTRUCTOR through the Maryland Police Training Commission, and a certified MASTER INSTRUCTOR through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. He was directly responsible for the training and educating of all Maryland State Police personnel in the Criminal Interdiction Venue.

Sheriff Lewis pioneered the drug interdiction program along Maryland's notorious U.S. Rt. 13 corridor, coordinating many multi-jurisdictional investigations following the seizures of large amounts of illegal contraband. During his twenty-two years as a Maryland State Trooper, he made many nationally recognized seizures of CRACK COCAINE along Maryland's East Coast.

Sheriff Lewis has trained tens of thousands of law enforcement officers extensively throughout the United States and Canada as well as other parts of the world to include; Australia, London, Germany, Russia & the West Indies. Sheriff Lewis has been judicially recognized by the federal & state courts of this country as an EXPERT in the areas of Highway Interdiction, Hidden Compartments & Drug Valuation.

Retired from the Maryland State Police effective July 1st, 2006, at the age of 41, he was elected SHERIFF of Wicomico County, Maryland.

Although responsible for a law enforcement agency with 130 sworn and civilian personnel, Sheriff Lewis continues to teach and train law enforcement officers throughout the United States in an effort to reduce the amount of illegal narcotics entering into our country.

Sheriff Lewis is also a nationally recognized instructor in "Pro-active Terrorism Interdiction", and teaches police officers the proper tactics and techniques when dealing with potential terrorists during roadside traffic stops. He teaches this course throughout the United States with the Homefront Security Associates group out of New York City which was founded following the attacks of September 11th, 2001.
